

Donate no-longer-used wireless phones and/or equipment (chargers, etc) for victims of domestic violence. For more info: <http://aboutus.vzw.com/communityservice/hopeLine.html>

HopeLine is a program exclusive to Verizon Wireless that puts wireless services and equipment to work to assist victims of domestic violence.

The long-running HopeLine program collects no-longer-used wireless phones and/or equipment in any condition from any service provider. The used phones are either refurbished or recycled. With the funds raised from the sale of the refurbished phones, Verizon Wireless donates wireless phones and airtime to victims, and provides funding and other contributions to non-profit domestic violence shelters and prevention programs across the country.

Used phones and equipment can be donated during the 2010 Kansas Women's Leadership Conference, during business hours at the Hays Welcome Center (2700 Vine), the FHSU Department of Leadership Studies, or to any Verizon Wireless retail store nationwide.
